

HOSPITALS GIVE BACK

North Carolina hospitals are the  of our communities.

Community benefits from North Carolina's hospitals and health systems totaled $5.79 BILLION IN 2021

In 2021, NC hospitals and health systems reached beyond hospital walls to provide:

$60
MILLION

SUBSIDIZED HEALTH SERVICES

Neonatal intensive care, addiction recovery, trauma services

$407
MILLION

HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Scholarships, internship support

$83
MILLION

HEALTH-RELATED RESEARCH COSTS

Investing in new technologies and companies

$14
MILLION

COMMUNITY-BUILDING ACTIVITIES

Initiatives to protect or improve the community's health and safety

$126
MILLION

COMMUNITY HEALTH IMPROVEMENT

Partnering in community development

$54
MILLION

IN-KIND DONATIONS

Donations of food, equipment, supplies, meeting space and staff hours

ALWAYS THERE, READY TO CARE

North Carolina's hospitals and health systems provide essential services that often go unreimbursed.

Medicaid Losses $820M

Charity Care $1.2B

Bad Debt $920M

Medicare Losses $3.1B

Source: Community benefit data reported to NCHA by member hospitals.

Uniting Hospitals, Health Systems & Care Providers for Healthier Communities