

HOSPITALS GIVE BACK

North Carolina hospitals are the  of our communities.

Community benefits from North Carolina's hospitals and health systems totaled $6.3 BILLION IN 2023

In 2023, NC hospitals and health systems reached beyond hospital walls to provide:

$114
MILLION

SUBSIDIZED HEALTH SERVICES

Neonatal intensive care, addiction recovery, trauma services

$353
MILLION

HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Scholarships, internship support

$59
MILLION

HEALTH-RELATED RESEARCH COSTS

Investing in new technologies and companies

$25
MILLION

COMMUNITY-BUILDING ACTIVITIES

Initiatives to protect or improve the community's health and safety — like housing improvements

$59
MILLION

COMMUNITY HEALTH IMPROVEMENT

Community health activities to improve overall population health and outcomes.

$47
MILLION

IN-KIND DONATIONS

Donations of food, equipment, supplies, meeting space and staff hours

ALWAYS THERE, READY TO CARE

North Carolina's hospitals and health systems provide essential services that often go unreimbursed.

Medicaid Losses $883M

Charity Care $1.2B

Bad Debt $838M

Medicare Losses $3.3B

