

HOSPITALS GIVE BACK

North Carolina hospitals are the  of our communities.

Community benefits from North Carolina's hospitals and health systems totaled $7.4 BILLION IN 2024

In 2024, NC hospitals and health systems reached beyond hospital walls to provide:

$145 Million SUBSIDIZED HEALTH SERVICES

Neonatal intensive care, addiction recovery,
trauma services

$11 Million COMMUNITY-BUILDING ACTIVITIES

Initiatives to protect or improve the community's health and safety — like housing improvements

$417 Million HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Scholarships, internship support

$82 Million COMMUNITY HEALTH IMPROVEMENT

Community health activities to improve overall population health and outcomes.

$106 Million HEALTH-RELATED RESEARCH COSTS

Investing in new technologies and companies

$66 Million IN-KIND DONATIONS

Donations of food,
equipment, supplies,
meeting space and staff hours

$544 Million
Medicaid Losses

$4.8 Billion
Medicare Losses

$1 Billion
Bad Debt

$1.5 Billion
Charity Care

ALWAYS OPEN, READY TO CARE

North Carolina's hospitals uniquely serve our communities around the clock, every day of the year, delivering essential care that is often underfunded or unreimbursed. They provide free and discounted care to individuals who would otherwise be unable to afford it, including uninsured and underinsured patients.