

Dr. Sue Lynn Ledford DrPH, MPA, BSN, RN

Executive Director

Four Square Community Action Inc.

Dr. Sue Lynn Murphy Ledford, DrPH, MPA, BSN, RN, is an accomplished public health, nonprofit, and local government leader with extensive experience in fiscal management, strategic planning, grant compliance, and community advocacy. As Executive Director of Four Square Community Action, Inc., she oversees housing, early childhood education, weatherization, community health, and social service programs serving Cherokee, Clay, Graham, and Swain counties. She also serves as a Cherokee County Commissioner and as a member of the Health and Human Services Committee of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners, bringing a regional perspective shaped by leadership roles and program experience across North Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee. Recent accomplishments include advancing plans for a new Head Start facility, affordable and workforce housing development, regional strategic planning, and rural policy advocacy related to healthcare access, broadband, childcare, and public safety. An enrolled member of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, Dr. Ledford combines clinical, administrative, and governance expertise to build cross-sector partnerships, strengthen organizational accountability, and deliver measurable results for rural and Native communities.
